The entire work is, both choreographically and musically, a theme with variations. The choreographer uses as his theme a large circle, which, at the opening of the work, fills the stage and moves majestically as if to evoke the interminable passage of time. This circle is seen repeatedly in many guises, rhythms and dramatic shapes, always making allusion to the text from chapter three of Ecclesiastes and its evocation of human experience.

Meditations on Ecclesiastes*, commissioned for José Limón by the Juilliard Music Foundation and its Festival of American Music, April, 1956. This score earned the composer the Pulitzer Prize in 1957.

About the Artists

Vera L. Embree, a graduate of Hampton University in Hampton, Virginia, studied extensively with such notables as José Limón and Alvin Ailey. A founder of many dance groups and a public school teacher in Maryland, Indiana, and Michigan, Ms. Embree joined the U of M faculty in 1968. Upon her retirement in 1987, the Vera L. Embree Dance Scholarship Fund was established in her honor. She has received numerous awards and was recognized for her devotion and contribution to the field by Governor James Blanchard in 1986 with the Governor's Michigan Artist Award.

Lucas Hoving was born in Holland. He studied and performed at the Kurt Jooss School and with the Jooss Ballet. Upon coming to New York, he worked with the companies of Martha Graham and José Limón before founding his own company in 1960. Icarus is Mr. Hoving's signature work and is performed by companies all over the world.

José Limón, one of the great pioneers of American modern dance, was born in Mexico. He came to New York in 1928, where he began dancing under Doris Humphrey. He formed his own company in the 1940s and created a repertory of over 70 works before his death in 1972. Of his repertory, The Moor's Pavane, Missa Brevis, The Exiles and There Is a Time are among his best-known works.

Peter Beudert (Scenic Designer)

- Assistant professor, Head of Design Program, Department of Theatre and Drama
- Salt of the Earth (U.S. premiere), Famous Door Theatre, Chicago
- Frankie and Johnny in the Claire de Lune, Attic Theatre, Detroit
- Fulbright Fellow to France

Jessica Fogel (Choreographer)

HELP DANCE AT MICHIGAN!

JOIN FRIENDS OF DANCE!

Who are we? — A growing group of friends helping young University of Michigan dancers and the Dance Department with scholarships and needed equipment. In 1990, we awarded eight scholarships to outstanding students and helped support the Dance Department's Guest Artist Series.

Advantages of membership — We enjoy contacts with the Dance faculty, guest artists and students at receptions, dinners, performances, and demonstrations in the Studio A Theater. We occasionally host visiting artists in our homes. We enjoy special opportunities to learn more about dance at our opening night dinners, when choreographers talk about the performance we are about to see. As members, we receive:

- Advance notice of all productions
- Opportunities to attend rehearsals
- Invitations to opening night receptions
- Recognition in Dance programs

Will you join us? — You are needed because there is much to do: generating scholarship funds to assist the development of gifted young dancers; contributing technical equipment necessary to make the Studio A Theater a viable performance space; insuring that guest artists will continue to enrich our dance programs; hosting visiting dancers and choreographers.
